

Careers in the Arts

What do you want to do when you grow up? When people think of careers in the arts, they most often think of singers, actors, musicians, maybe directors and maybe painters. But what about:

Visual Arts

Animator
Architect
Art Historian
Computer Graphics
Commercial Artist
Critic
Fashion Designer
Framer
Gallery Owner
Graphic Designer
Illustrator
Interior Designer
Painter
Paper Maker
Photographer
Print Maker
Printing/Publishing
Sculptor
Sign Painter
Teacher
Textile Designer
Typographer

Theater/Film/Radio/TV

Actor
Animal Trainer/Wrangler
Announcer
Art Director
Audio Engineer
Box Office/Ticketing Services
Camera Person
Carpenter
Casting Director
Cinematographer
Comedian
Costume Designer/Maker
Dialect/Voice Coach
Director: Film, Television, Stage
Electrician
Film Editor
Lighting Designer
Magician
Music Director
News Anchor/Reporter
Producer
Props
Recording Engineer
Scene Designer
Special Effects
Stagehand

Stuntman/Stunt Coordinator
Teacher
Videographer
Voiceover Actor
Writer: Film, Television, Theater

Music

Accompanist
Composer/songwriter
Conductor: Choir, Band, Orchestra
Instrumentalist
Instrument Maker/Repair
Music Publisher
Music Librarian
Orchestrator
Personnel Manager
Piano Tuner
Recording Executive
Singer
Sound Engineer
Stagehand or "Roadie"
Stage Manager
Teacher

Dance

Ballet Master/Mistress
Choreographer
Company Manager
Dance Captain
Music Coordinator
Shoemaker
Teacher

And then there's

Accountant
Arts Administrator
Art/Music Therapist
Agent
Artistic Director
Attorney
Business Manager
Curator
Education and Outreach
Executive Director
Fundraiser
Marketing Director
Publicist
And more...!